EXECUTIVE SEARCH PLACEMENT

Beth Snider has been named Director of Annual Giving for the Holocaust Memorial Center in Farmington Hills, Michigan after an extensive national search conducted by Arts Consulting Group.

"We are very proud to have someone with Beth's credentials and experience join our organization," said Holocaust Memorial Center's Executive Director, Stephen M. Goldman. "Her expertise will help us solidify our relationships with existing donors and reach out to potential supporters in the community."

Ms. Snider's previous experience includes positions as Director of Development at the Detroit Science Center, as Foundation and Government Grants Manager for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and as Associate Editor for the Metro Parent Publishing Group. She attended The Fund Raising School of The Center on Philanthropy at Indiana University and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism from Wayne State University.

"All of us at ACG want to congratulate Beth on being selected to spearhead the Holocaust Memorial Center's new strategies for broadening financial support," said Lee Kappelman of Arts Consulting Group. "We also want to thank the Center's Board and staff for their active participation and strong support during the search process. We look forward to hearing about their progress and the Center's future success."
